Adieu Musin.

The great violinist, Ovide Musin, arrived in Honolulu at a time when the odds for a success were decidedly against him. The year has been bad financially and otherwise. We have got through revolutions, cholera epidemics and earthquakes, and the community, music loving as it is, has not been in a mood to patronize any kind of a "show."

And then we got a circus, a Japanese acrobat show, an opium catching navy, and—what not.

But under all these disadvantages Ovide Musin received a crowded house whenever the masterly stroke of his magic bow was heard over his violin. To-night he gives his last concert. It will probably be the last time that the great virtuoso will be heard in Honolulu. The present generation ought not to lose its chance. The people of Honolulu should be at the Y. M. C. A. in full force this evening and hail Musin at his farewell concert.

Yesterday the great violinist and Mr. Scharf, the skilful accompanist, assisted at a concert given at the Kamehameha schools. The gifted artists showed the pupils of that school what true music is, and it is unnecessary to state that they were greeted with a most enthusiastic applause.

Mr. Musin and his party will leave Honolulu on the 28th inst. for the Orient.

Tickets for to-night's concert can be obtained at Hobron's Drug Store and at the Y. M. C. A. hall.

Benefit for Muriel.

Mr. Wirth has decided to greet his Honolulu friends with two extra performances. The popular circus cannot leave for Hilo this week and he has arranged a matinee and evening performance for Saturday. The matinee will be a complimentary benefit for Miss Muriel Wirth the most popular of his clever performers. When her admirers yesterday evening presented her with a beautiful bouquet a spontaneous applause arose and the little artist knew that she has won a room in the hearts of her Honolulu friends.

Mr. Wirth has invited the inmates of Lunalilo Home to the Saturday matinee. On Monday morning the company will leave for Hilo.

The Roshina.

The O. R. & N. Co's steamer Roshina arrived in port yesterday morning from Yokohama after a stormy voyage. The steamer was twenty-one days out. The hurricane which struck the Baltimore was encountered by the Roshina. She weathered the storm and little damage only was done to the fine vessel. The following are the officers: Master, C. F. Harriman; mate, Dan Wallace; second mate, Wm. Mackenzie; third mate, Edw. Rodgers; engineer, John Young; second engineer Wm. Davidson; purser, F. E. J. Bishop.

The Roshina sailed for Portland at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Cricket.

A cricket match was played on the H. C. C. grounds, Pawa, on Christmas Day, between an eleven from H. M. S. Wild Swan and the Honolulu Cricket Club, which resulted in a victory for the home team. A second innings was played, but the Honolulu club, after running a score of 68, of which Pliansia made 31, and with a loss of three wickets, retired, and the Wild Swan team went in, quickly making a score of 44 runs for three wickets, when time was called. It was very pleasant to see so many visitors on the ground and joining in the enthusiasm of the game.
